

acusend™ Administrators

acusend™ has been created as a solution to the complex challenge of consolidating disparate sources and managing information flows. Thanks to acusend™, companies can manage and control the personalised distribution of all forms of business information to a broad community of recipients, using a range of devices. The aim of this course is to enable delegates to learn how to administer and use acusend™ to control information distribution.

On completion, delegates will be able to:

Administer and use the software tools of acusend™ to control information distribution.

Who should attend?

This course is aimed at an audience of people who are System Administrators or Database Administrators and who will have the responsibility of administering the acusend™ product set.

Prerequisites

A working knowledge of both the Microsoft Windows environment and the use of a standard mouse. No previous knowledge of acusend™ is required. Good knowledge of the types of reports to be distributed by acusend™.

Course Duration

1 day

Practical work

Practical sessions will reinforce many of the topics covered and are used extensively throughout this course. These allow delegates to have direct hands-on practice using acusend™ to control information distribution.

Acuma Education

All Acuma courses are delivered by trainers who are highly experienced consultant practitioners. This rich project experience coupled with professional training skills helps delegates to focus on how the course contents can be put into practice in their workplace.

Acuma delivers courses from dedicated training facilities in Manchester, Birmingham and London, but also deliver training offsite using suites of laptops, with the option to customise courses to use your own business data and tailored to your exact training needs. The most appropriate training format depends upon your training objectives, number of learners, timescales, budgets and delivery logistics. Whatever your needs, Acuma will find the approach most suited to them.

Acuma Education's seal of quality is demonstrated through consistent achievement of the prestigious "Gold Standard" from the IITT (Institute of IT Trainers).
